DECISION ON PROFFER¹

Roth, Special Master:

On August 21, 2017, Heather Adams [“Ms. Adams or “petitioner”] filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program.² Petitioner alleges that she developed Guillain-Barre Syndrome after receiving an influenza vaccine on November 8, 2016. Proffer, filed November 20, 2024, at ¶¶ 1-4. A Ruling on Entitlement issued on July 23, 2024, finding petitioner entitled to compensation. ECF No. 67.

On November 20, 2024, respondent filed a proffer agreeing to settle this case and describing the settlement terms. Respondent agrees to issue the following payment:

¹ Because this Decision contains a reasoned explanation for the action taken in this case, it must be made publicly accessible and will be posted on the United States Court of Federal Claims' website, and/or at <https://www.govinfo.gov/app/collection/uscourts/national/cofc>, in accordance with the E-Government Act of 2002. 44 U.S.C. § 3501 note (2018) (Federal Management and Promotion of Electronic Government Services). This means the Decision will be available to anyone with access to the internet. In accordance with Vaccine Rule 18(b), Petitioner has 14 days to identify and move to redact medical or other information, the disclosure of which would constitute an unwarranted invasion of privacy. If, upon review, I agree that the identified material fits within this definition, I will redact such material from public access.

PROFFER ON AWARD OF COMPENSATION

On May 23, 2021, petitioner filed a Motion for a Ruling on the Record (“Motion”) arguing that she has established entitlement to compensation for Guillain-Barre Syndrome (“GBS”) resulting from an influenza vaccine. ECF No. 56. Respondent filed his Response to Petitioner’s Motion on February 3, 2022, recommending that entitlement to compensation be denied. ECF No. 64. On July 23, 2024, the Court issued a Ruling on Entitlement, finding that petitioner is entitled to compensation.¹ ECF No. 67.

I. Items of Compensation

Based upon the evidence of record, respondent proffers that petitioner should be awarded $120,000.00, which represents all elements of compensation to which petitioner would be entitled under 42 U.S.C. § 300aa-15(a).² Petitioner agrees.

II. Form of the Award

Petitioner is a competent adult. Evidence of guardianship is not required in this case. Respondent recommends that the compensation provided to petitioner should be made through a lump sum payment of $120,000.00, in the form of a check payable to petitioner. Petitioner agrees.

Respectfully submitted,
